Matt Gonzalez Leads in Poll as Campaign Moves Forward

Tuesday, November 25

A KPIX poll released today by KPIX shows that Matt Gonzalez has widened his lead over Gavin Newsom, 52% to 45%.

Real Solutions for a Real Problem: A Blueprint for Homelessness

Although we may not have a vice mayor of homelessness, Matt's homeless plan will move us away from a system of expensive temporary shelters to real solutions that gets people off the streets and into permanent affordable housing. This plan is based on sound policy, not sound bite politics, building on the recommendations of the Controllers Audit, Grand Jury, the SPUR Report and best practices from successful cities.

Gonzalez Prepares for Next Debate

After the Newsom campaign refused a format that would have allowed for substantive debate on the crucial issues that face San Franciscans, Matt Gonzalez is looking forward to the upcoming debate that will include two minute responses.

Tom Ammiano endorses Matt Gonzalez

Monday, November 24

Supervisor Tom Ammiano has endorsed Matt Gonzalez for mayor of San Francisco in the December 9 runoff against Gavin Newsom. Ammiano, who preceded Gonzalez as president of the Board of Supervisors, is the latest prominent Democrat and the fifth supervisor to endorse his campaign.

"I feel that Matt Gonzalez is the best candidate to serve the needs of all San Franciscans," Ammiano said in announcing his support.

visionary environmental policy for San Francisco

Friday, November 22

Matt Gonzalez released his Environmental Policy Paper, which includes a visionary and integrated path to an environmentally sustainable city, cleaning up the unjust toxic legacy in San Francisco's most neglected communities, and improving environmental practices citywide. From saving Marina Green to improving the Hunters Point sewage treatment plant, Matt's policy covers the entire city and the full range of issues, from clean energy production to toxic cleanup to greening our city streets and parks. Read the San Francisco Bay Chapter of the Sierra Club's Environmental Voting Chart, as well as Matt's A+ and Gavin's D environmental report card.

Alioto backs Newsom - Gonzalez camp cries foul

It was an astonishing move for a candidate who spent all but two weeks of 2003 as the overwhelming favorite to be elected San Francisco's next mayor. With two weeks left until election day and a new poll showing Matt Gonzalez gaining ground, Gavin Newsom took a risk Monday when he accepted the ... full story >>

At last, Ammiano backs Gonzalez
